

Celebrating 25 years

helping and serving you - the people of the Greater Charleston Area

Hill, Peterson, Carper, Bee & Deitzler, P.L.L.C.

Twenty-five years ago attorney Ed Hill formed a law firm to serve and represent people who were wronged or injured by others. Since June of 1980, the law firm has represented thousands of ordinary people throughout West Virginia and more than a dozen other states. With help from Hill, Peterson, Carper, Bee & Deitzler, those individuals and families have received necessary medical treatment and rehabilitation and have been able to make the ends meet after tragedy struck. Their verdicts and settlements from Hill, Peterson, Carper, Bee & Deitzler have totaled in excess of half a billion dollars over the past twenty-five years.

Hill, Peterson, Carper, Bee & Deitzler, P.L.L.C. is a Charleston law firm. Although the law firm represents clients throughout the country, its primary offices have always been here. The five owners all live in Charleston, care about Charleston, and have raised their families here. The city business taxes, which the law firm has paid to the City of Charleston during the past ten years, have totaled almost $1,000,000.00. Put into perspective, that equals the cost of every ambulance purchased by the City of Charleston during the same period of time or the cost of the last three fire trucks which the city purchased. We are proud to call Charleston our home!
